

FIFTY YEARS OF THE KOHLER CO. OBSERVE WITH BIG FESTIVAL

pavilion. And a big athletic program was carried out. John Weber's "Prize Band of America" played concerts both afternoon and evening, and the Kohler band, under the leadership of the veteran Director John Schmidt, also contributed a concert.

Food Is a Feature

It is rather hard to single out any one feature of the festival as enjoying the highest regard of the crowd, but the Hyatt and hamburger stands gave everything else a close race. An unbelievable amount of these commodities was consumed, on the authority of the Recreation club. It is a fact that the club owns its crates of a liberal percentage of excess over the consumption at the big festival last year and at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon the supply was so seriously threatened with exhaustion that additional orders had to be placed with the various supply houses.

The same can be said of such other dainties as ice cream, crack-cakes and chocolate. Children were lured in the festival and they made terrific inroads on the food supply.

Emergency Arrangements. The Recreation club had excellent emergency arrangements. There was a rest room for women in the school room, the first of the school rooms was fitted as a nursery for babies. This was one of the most effectively run in the village. A professional nurse and several volunteer assistants were present all afternoon to care for the babies of the youngsters, to aid mothers in the emergency and to care for the necessary with babies from time to time.

And one lost baby was turned in, a fat, blue-eyed little one. The child was not really lost, but had been sent to a nurse. The child had awakened in advance of schedule, which was not to be expected, and with a merry sound around organ and the talk of those who were in the nursery. A nurse called and did not seem to find the child. All the while there was only one small slip in the arrangements of the entire festival. A professional entertainer announced to appear did not make good. But the other numbers were well enjoyed.

The Smith Sisters, two tiny dancers, were really remarkable performance, doing intricate toe dancing evolutions with all the accompaniment of the expert danseuse. The women in the big crowd thought the youngsters particularly "cute" and they made a pronounced hit.

Traveller and a remarkable contortionist, and Alfred Burkhardt, a trick cyclist, featuring the high and low tricks and the remainder of the program and scored heavily with the crowd. The platform was thrown open to the music of the Marquardt's orchestra. Dancing continued till 7:30, and after a special concert the band concert was resumed at 9 o'clock, continuing till midnight.

A unique and unusual feature, in that it was contributed by a member of the exhibition, was the exhibition of aviation by a plane from Sheboygan Airport, of which Captain E. R. Weber, of the organization, president of the village, is the owner.

Amusement for Everyone. The amusements in the Afternoon were so arranged that anyone might take a chance and put in an agreeable. Weber's band was playing on the bluff midway of having the other bands and managers were engaged in a baseball game. The Kohler and American Chair teams of the Manufacturers League. A better brand of ball there was dancing on the pavilion floor, a tennis tournament was in progress. The Kohler band played later in the afternoon, the concession stands were filling out refreshments, the amusements for the children were in full blast. The invited guests could spend some time examining the Kohler exhibits and products, the sale of which throughout the world makes the big festival possible. It is a fact that all could not be seen at once, but the thing most attractive to the individual was the chance to spend time out the crowd and avoiding crushes.

The Crowning Event

Crowning the festival, epitomizing it as a happy gathering of Kohler people and their friends was the concert by the Weber band in the nature theatre in the evening.

Above the theatre was a magnificent cluster of lights, suspended from a stage marked in pine, a veritable bouquet brilliance, a sort of "electric light plant" as one facetious observer described it. There were similar clusters on standards surrounding the theatre and his above it floated Old Kohler in the rays of three immense search lights directed in many directions.

The band was seated below the big cluster and Director Weber, resplendent in his white costume of ceremony, presided over the concert with a smile almost paternal as he made his group of musicians respond to his baton.

The program was on a higher plane than is usual with band concerts. It was a selection of Grand Guonod, Offenbach and Verdi, interspersed with compositions by modern masters of dancing.

It may be that the crowd likes the "Orpheus" overture rather better than any other that was played, probably because of its familiarity and also because of the spirit and grace of the Weber band. It was the well known coda. At the conclusion of this number the Nature theatre was closed for the evening.

The crowd was the largest ever assembled in this immense natural theatre. The seats for the audience had been provided immediately in front of the platform, and across the brook on the west side of the ravine. But these cared for only a comparatively small portion of the crowd. The others sat on the encircling hillside, in no discomfort at all. They remained for the last note of the Star Spangled Banner and left the theatre with reluctance.

The quality of the band was revealed about as well through its performance of a Tobani arrangement of the opera of the Barber of Seville. Faust, Il Trovatore and several other great extent familiar to the crowd, and no better informed musically could delight in the variety of instrumentation employed in the pot purri of the band.

A demonstration of Weber's skill in arrangement was seen in Godfrey's "The Song of the Sea" and a medley of jigs, reels, strathspeys and old loved songs. It almost set the crowd to dancing on the hillside.

The veteran director and his musicians were in excellent voice in their two concerts and added thousands of new admirers to their old ones.

Outstanding features of the concert were the cornet solos of Frank Simon and the soprano solos of Miss Katherine H.

Mr. Simon came as an old friend. He had played at Kohler some years ago with his band. On the two occasions Saturday he was given an ovation, a sort of "Welcome home" and Mr. Simon justified the high opinion in which he is held at Kohler. His solo in the Afternoon was "The American Boy," an arrangement making possible the playing of intricate variations on familiar tunes. On Saturday Mr. Simon plays triple tongue cadenzas and chromatic runs with the ease and authority of a xylophone. Ordinarily only among violinists, cellists and pianists are found musicians with such instrumental mastery that displayed by Mr. Simon over his admittedly most difficult instrument.

And Miss Hoch won a place in Kohler hearts also. In the afternoon she sang a Strauss song, in the evening the big soprano aria from "La Traviata." Singing in the open makes special demands upon the artist, especially when the accompaniment is a military band. It involves volume and clarity of articulation. Miss Hoch possesses and her golden notes floated out to the big crowd on the still air with a penetration remarkable in the circumstances. Physically and vocally, Miss Hoch is an ideal singer for occasions such as this and she achieved on this occasion a personal triumph.

Baseball. The annual baseball game between the Branch Managers and the Home Office teams was one of the interesting events of the festival.

Coming from behind with a sudden spurt in the ninth inning, the Home Office team defeated the Branch Managers, 12 to 10. The game was a tough fight from the very beginning. It was a nip and tuck business for both teams. The Home Office took the box of cigars away with the Branch Managers promising to make a match next year and take the prize. The score:

Kohler Company Annual Report Introduction

In today's digital age, the availability of Kohler Company Annual Report books and manuals for download has revolutionized the way we access information. Gone are the days of physically flipping through pages and carrying heavy textbooks or manuals. With just a few clicks, we can now access a wealth of knowledge from the comfort of our own homes or on the go. This article will explore the advantages of Kohler Company Annual Report books and manuals for download, along with some popular platforms that offer these resources. One of the significant advantages of Kohler Company Annual Report books and manuals for download is the cost-saving aspect. Traditional books and manuals can be costly, especially if you need to purchase several of them for educational or professional purposes. By accessing Kohler Company Annual Report versions, you eliminate the need to spend money on physical copies. This not only saves you money but also reduces the environmental impact associated with book production and transportation. Furthermore, Kohler Company Annual Report books and manuals for download are incredibly convenient. With just a computer or smartphone and an internet connection, you can access a vast library of resources on any subject imaginable. Whether you're a student looking for textbooks, a professional seeking industry-specific manuals, or someone interested in self-improvement, these digital resources provide an efficient and accessible means of acquiring knowledge. Moreover, PDF books and manuals offer a range of benefits compared to other digital formats. PDF files are designed to retain their formatting regardless of the device used to open them. This ensures that the content appears exactly as intended by the author, with no loss of formatting or missing graphics. Additionally, PDF files can be easily annotated, bookmarked, and searched for specific terms, making them highly practical for studying or referencing. When it comes to accessing Kohler Company Annual Report books and manuals, several platforms offer an extensive collection of resources. One such platform is Project Gutenberg, a nonprofit organization that provides over 60,000 free eBooks. These books are primarily in the public domain, meaning they can be freely distributed and downloaded. Project Gutenberg offers a wide range of classic literature, making it an excellent resource for literature enthusiasts. Another popular platform for Kohler Company Annual Report books and manuals is Open Library. Open Library is an initiative of the Internet Archive, a non-profit organization dedicated to digitizing cultural artifacts and making them accessible to the public. Open Library hosts millions of books, including both public domain works and contemporary titles. It also allows users to borrow digital copies of certain books for a limited period, similar to a library lending system. Additionally, many universities and educational institutions have their own digital libraries that provide free access to PDF books and manuals. These libraries often offer academic texts, research papers, and technical manuals, making them invaluable resources for students and researchers. Some notable examples include MIT OpenCourseWare, which offers free access to course materials from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and the Digital Public Library of America, which provides a vast collection of digitized books and historical documents. In conclusion, Kohler Company Annual Report books and manuals for download have transformed the way we access information. They provide a cost-effective and convenient means of acquiring knowledge, offering the ability to access a vast library of resources at our fingertips. With platforms like Project Gutenberg, Open Library, and various digital libraries offered by educational institutions, we have access to an ever-expanding collection of books and manuals. Whether for educational, professional, or personal purposes, these digital resources serve as valuable tools for continuous learning and self-improvement. So why not take advantage of the vast world of Kohler Company Annual Report books and manuals for download and embark on your journey of knowledge?
