

A Midsummer Night's Dream - Shakespeare

Shakespeare's 'A Midsummer Night's Dream' is a play of romantic comedy. It is one of Shakespeare's more famous comedies and has been performed by many different actors. The production of 'A Midsummer Night's Dream' that I watched was performed in London's Regents Park by the Open Air Theatre Company. The play was successful because of the dramatical techniques and acting shown by the performers.

This essay explores the techniques and acting, and compares them to a cinema production of the same play. The play takes place in the Greek City of Athens, about the same time as Shakespeare. There are three main groups of people in the play, the fairies, the lovers and the mechanicals. Each has a specific role in the plot of the play, and their separate worlds get intertwined during the middle section of the play.

All the groups meet in the woods just outside of Athens, and it is here that the main section of the play happens. The fairies accidentally put a love potion into Lysander's eyes, making him fall in love with Helena. They then put the love potion into Demetrius's eyes in an attempt to rectify the situation. While this is happening the mechanicals have come to the woods to rehearse their play. Puck, one of the fairies turns Bottom into an ass, and makes Titania, the Queen of the fairies fall in love with him by using the love juice. Each of the worlds are then separated and they return to their normal way of life and to the Wedding of the Duke of Athens to Hippolyta.

Each of the groups' roles are equally important and are explored below. The fairies are Titania, the Queen of the fairies, Oberon the King of the fairies, and Puck a mischievous fairy and a servant to Oberon. The fairies are introduced in the Open Air Theatre Production amidst smoke and turmoil. This adds a magical feeling to their appearance, and provides a starting point for their part in the plot.

Their paths cross in the woods and an argument ensues during which Titania utters the most famous line from this play, 'The fairy kingdom buys not the child of me.' In both productions this is played in very different ways. In the Open Air Theatre Production, Titania is depicted as a mild fairy with good intentions and Oberon as a strict and moody King. The temperamental side of Oberon is depicted in the line, 'Why should Titania cross her Oberon?' In the Open-Air production Oberon is in a rage while saying these words, whereas in the film he is calmer, simply trying to reason with Titania.

However, in the film, Titania is portrayed with a more malevolent side and Oberon as a mild mannered and good-humoured character. This is evident in the lines 'What, jealous Oberon! Fairies, skip hence; I have forsworn his bed and company.' In the film, Titania is teasing Oberon with these lines in an attempt to anger him and irritate him into a rage. From this simple interchange the plot of the play is altered in both of the productions. In the Open Air Theat
