An Introduction to the Description of the Varieties of French in Africa Emmanuel N. Kwofie,1997 Considerable progress has been made in describing the French language in its various settings around the world but in Africa confusion has arisen over the characterisation of the varieties of French in Africa due largely to a lack of data and criteria necessary for a clear definition The study aims to provide a framework within which African French may be more objectively characterised by reviewing aspects of relevant researches not discussed in previous studies of the subject The author analyses the relationship between sociolinguistics and dialectology and the relevance of the two types of linguistics to the description of the French
