Kissing The Mango Tree Puerto Rican Women Rewriting American Literature:

Kissing the Mango Tree Carmen Socorro Rivera, 2002-01-01 Pioneering novelist and short story writer Nicholasa Mohr broke onto the literary scene of ethnic autobiography in the early 1970s but it took another decade for other Puerto Rican women writers in the United States to follow the path that she cut From the late 1970s on a dynamic group of these writers have expanded the landscape of American literature Kissing the Mango Tree is the first and only book to examine the works of the most popular Puerto Rican women writers from the perspective of feminist literary criticism Rivera reconstructs the ethno feminist aesthetic of Judith Ortiz Cofer Sandra Mar a Esteves Nicholasa Mohr Aurora Levins Morales Rosario Morales Esmeralda Santiago and Luz Mar a Umpierre Herrera In separate chapters dedicated to each of these writers the author locates their works within the framework of feminist theory and literature seeing them as women with macho asserting their creative powers to record their own versions of their memories to own their own bodies They transform the way we look at the process of growing up and becoming a woman at the relationship with our mothers and our daughters at the fluidity of our lives at our notions of nationhood This groundbreaking study is accompanied by a complete bibliography of the six writers works and secondary sources of feminist Latino and ethno poetic criticism and theory Ethnic American Literature Emmanuel S. Nelson, 2015-02-17 Unlike any other book of its kind this volume celebrates published works from a broad range of American ethnic groups not often featured in the typical canon of literature This culturally rich encyclopedia contains 160 alphabetically arranged entries on African American Asian American Latino a and Native American literary traditions among others The book introduces the uniquely American mosaic of multicultural literature by chronicling the achievements of American writers of non European descent and highlighting the ethnic diversity of works from the colonial era to the present The work features engaging topics like the civil rights movement bilingualism assimilation and border narratives Entries provide historical overviews of literary periods along with profiles of major authors and great works including Toni Morrison Maxine Hong Kingston Maya Angelou Sherman Alexie A Raisin in the Sun American Born Chinese and The House on Mango Street The book also provides concise overviews of genres not often featured in textbooks like the Chinese American novel African American young adult literature Mexican American autobiography and Cuban American poetry A Companion to US Latino Literatures Carlota Caulfield, Darién J. Davis, 2007 A panorama of literature by Latinos whether born or resident in the United States Encyclopedia of Hispanic-American Literature Luz Elena Ramirez, 2015-04-22 Presents a reference on Hispanic American literature providing profiles of Hispanic American writers and their works Twentieth-Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context Linda De Roche, 2021-06-04 This four volume reference work surveys American literature from the early 20th century to the present day featuring a diverse range of American works and authors and an expansive selection of primary source materials Bringing useful and engaging material into the classroom this four volume set covers more than a century of American literary history from 1900 to the present Twentieth Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context profiles authors and their works and provides overviews of literary movements and genres through which readers will understand the historical cultural and political contexts that have shaped American writing Twentieth Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context provides wide coverage of authors works genres and movements that are emblematic of the diversity of modern America Not only are major literary movements represented such as the Beats but this work also highlights the emergence and development of modern Native American literature African American literature and other representative groups that showcase the diversity of American letters A rich selection of primary documents and background material provides indispensable information for student research

Historical Dictionary of U.S. Latino Literature Francisco A. Lomelí, Donald W. Urioste, María Joaquina Villaseñor, 2016-12-27 U S Latino Literature is defined as Latino literature within the United States that embraces the heterogeneous inter groupings of Latinos For too long U S Latino literature has not been thought of as an integral part of the overall shared American literary landscape but that is slowly changing This dictionary aims to rectify some of those misconceptions by proving that Latinos do fundamentally express American issues concerns and perspectives with a flair in linguistic cadences familial themes distinct world views and cross cultural voices The Historical Dictionary of U S Latino Literature contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has cross referenced entries on U S Latino authors and terms relevant to the nature of U S Latino literature in order to illustrate and corroborate its foundational bearings within the overall American literary experience This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about this subject

Kissing the Mango Tree Carmen Socorro Rivera, 2002 Kissing the Mango Tree is the first and only book to examine the works of the most popular Puerto Rican women writers from the perspective of feminist literary criticism Rivera reconstructs the ethno feminist aesthetic of Judith Ortiz Cofer Sandra Maria Esteves Nicholasa Mohr Aurora Levins Morales Rosario Morales Esmeralda Santiago and Luz Maria Umpierre Herrera This study is accompanied by a complete bibliography of the six writers works and secondary sources of feminist Latino and ethno poetic criticism and theory
