Black Student Politics Higher Education and Apartheid examines two black national student political organisations the South African National Students Congress SANSCO and the South African Students Organisation SASO popularly associated with Black Consciousness It analyses the ideologies politics and organisation of SASO and SANSCO and their intellectual political and social determinants It also analyses their role in the educational political and social spheres and the factors that shaped their activities Finally it assesses their contributions to the popular struggle against apartheid education as well as against race class and gender oppression South African Medical Journal ,1995 Studiegeleenthede Aan Universiteite Joan Roodt,1994 This guide is a summary of approximately 550 study opportunities and possible occupations in the Republic of South Africa that can be pursued by persons with degrees diplomas or certificates The study opportunities are organized by field of study For each opportunity the following information is provided field of study possible occupation s name of degree diploma certificate where the study opportunity is available language medium of institution duration of study entry qualifications and subjects required subjects recommended selection basis and fees for courses The guide which is presented in English and Afrikaans also contains an alphabetical list of fields of study for which study opportunities exist the possible occupations that can be pursued by persons with degrees and a list of the universities and their addresses JDD In the Event Lotte Meinert,Bruce Kapferer,2015-05-01 Events are generative moments in at least three senses events are created by and condense larger scale social structures as moments they spark and give rise to new social processes in themselves events may also serve to analyze social situations and relationships Based on ethnographic studies from around the world varying from rituals and meetings over protests and conflicts to natural disasters and management this volume analyzes generative moments through events that hold the key to understanding larger social situations These events including the Ashura ritual in Bahrain social cleavages in South Africa a Buddhist cave in Nepal drought in Burkina Faso an earthquake in Pakistan the cartoon crisis in Denmark corporate management at Bang Olufsen protest meetings in Europe and flooding and urban citizenship in Mozambique are not simply destructive disasters crises and conflicts but also generative and constitutive of the social Commonwealth Universities Yearbook ,2003 Social Work in Social Change Nicci Earle,2008 This study forms part of a series of studies on professions and professional education being conducted by the HSRC s research programme on Education Science Skills Development It follows a pilot study on medical doctors published in 2006 entitled Doctors in a Divided Society The profession and education of medical practitioners in South Africa Like the other studies in the series this study involved developing an understanding of the professional milieu and professional labour market of social workers As the implementers of government social policy social work professionals have been at the forefront of grappling with the practicalities of the changes in focus approach and methods of social security and social service delivery since 1994 It examines developments in the education and training of social workers within the democratic dispensation the most significant of which is the development of a national standardised Bachelor of Social Work degree The study also reveals that the dominant profile in student enrolment and graduation statistics has changed from white female to African female and that enrolment has increased significantly However the study also shows that graduation trends have been negative and losses due to emigration are an additional concern Given the scarcity of these professionals against the demand for their services understanding the factors that contribute to this picture are critical to effective intervention Developments in Schools and Education Today , South African Pressclips ,1991-05 The Right Thing to Do, The Smart Thing to Do Association of Academic Health Centers,Clyde H. Evans,Association of American Medical Colleges,Lois Colburn,Institute of Medicine,Adrienne Y. Stith,Brian D. Smedley,2001-09-29 The Symposium on Diversity in the Health Professions in Honor of Herbert W Nickens M D was convened in March 2001 to provide a forum for health policymakers health professions educators education policymakers researchers and others to address three significant and contradictory challenges the continued under representation of African Americans Hispanics and Native Americans in health professions the growth of these populations in the United States and subsequent pressure to address their health care needs and the recent policy legislative and legal challenges to affirmative action that may limit access for underrepresented minority students to health professions training The symposium summary along with a collection of papers presented are to help stimulate further discussion and action toward addressing these challenges The Right Thing to Do The Smart Thing to Do Enhancing Diversity in Health Professions illustrates how the health care industry and health care professions are fighting to retain the public s confidence so that the U S health care system can continue to be the world s best Leadership ,1989 Tertiary Pass Rates in South Africa Isabelle Delvare,1995 Addressing Tertiary Failure Rates in South Africa Isabelle Delvare,1996 South African Digest ,1984 Law and Justice in South Africa Institute for Public Interest Law and Research,1988
