Ampong, Manuel Alector Ribeiro

Kzn Geography Paper 2014 June:

African Studies: Breakthroughs in Research and Practice Management Association, Information Resources, 2020-04-03
Global interest in African studies has been rapidly growing as researchers realize the importance of understanding the impact African communities can have on the economy development education and more As the use acceptance and popularity of African knowledge increases it is crucial to explore how this community based knowledge provides deeper insights understanding and influence on such things as decision making and problem solving African Studies Breakthroughs in Research and Practice examines the politics culture language history socio economic development methodologies and contemporary experiences of African peoples from around the world Highlighting a range of topics such as indigenous knowledge developing countries and public administration this publication is an ideal reference source for sociologists policymakers anthropologists government officials economists instructors researchers academicians and graduate level students in a variety of fields

South African Urban Change Three Decades After Apartheid Anthony Lemon, Ronnie Donaldson, Gustav Visser, 2021-06-10 This book provides an analysis of South African urban change over the past three decades It draws on a seminal text Homes Apart and revisits conclusions drawn in that collection that marked the final phases of urban apartheid It highlights changes in demography social as well as economic structure and their differential spatial expression across a range of urban sites in South Africa The evidence presented in this book points to a very complex set of narratives in urban South Africa and one that cannot be reduced to a singular statement so the conclusions of the various investigations are in many ways open As urban apartheid represented one clear outcome its post apartheid urban legacies varies greatly from city to city As such this book is a great resource to students and academics focused on urban change in South African cities since the demise of apartheid and scholars of urban policy making in South Africa and Southern urbanists generally

The State of African Cities, 2014 United Nations Publications, 2015-09-10 The African continent is currently in the midst of simultaneously unfolding and highly significant demographic economic technological environmental urban and socio political transitions Africa's economic performance is promising with booming cities supporting growing middle classes and creating sizable consumer markets Despite significant overall growth the continent continues to suffer under very rapid urban growth accompanied by massive urban poverty and many other social problems These seem to indicate that the development trajectories followed by African nations since post independence may not be able to deliver on the aspirations of broad based human development and prosperity for all This report therefore argues for a bold re imagining of prevailing models in order to steer the ongoing transitions towards greater sustainability based on a thorough review of all available options That is especially the case since the already daunting urban challenges in Africa are now being exacerbated by the new vulnerabilities and threats associated with climate and environmental change

Ribeiro,2020-11-29 This book provides a comprehensive and readable overview of the critical debates and controversies around tourism in Africa and the major factors that are affecting tourism development now and in the future Drawing upon research emerging from collaborations between a growing number of African academics and practitioners based in the continent and in the African diaspora as well as international colleagues the Handbook offers key critical insights into the issues challenges and trends that Africa and African tourism is facing Part I covers continent wide issues such as climate change ICT heritage and development The remaining parts are organised along geographic lines with each chapter covering the development of tourism current trends and discussion of critical issues such as community participation gender backpacking urban tourism wildlife tourism and conservation Combining an overview of key theories concepts contemporary issues and debates this book will be a valuable resource for students academics and practitioners investigating the role of tourism in Africa

Human Rights Issues in Tourism Atsuko Hashimoto,Elif Harkonen,Edward Nkyi,2020-12-28 This book uniquely focuses on human rights issues associated with tourism development and tourism businesses Tourism is a manifestation of globalization and it intersects with human rights on so many levels These implications are increasingly relevant in light of the COVID 19 pandemic and subsequent global economic hardship Split into two main sections the first establishes a background to human rights issues with reference to tourism and the second provides a multi disciplinary analysis of a range of selected human rights issues in tourism these include displacement security privacy discrimination freedom of movement the rights of Indigenous people sex tourism and labour conditions All chapters include case studies to showcase specific issues such as legal rulings or tourism policies regulations This book is written by a highly regarded team of authors specializing in tourism studies and human rights law This significant volume on the interaction between tourism development and the safeguarding of human rights will be of interest to a variety of disciplines in the fields of tourism political science and tourism human rights

Making Public in a Privatized World David A. McDonald,2016-02-15 How do we provide effective public services in a deeply neoliberal world In the wake of the widespread failure of privatisation efforts societies in the global south are increasingly seeking progressive ways of recreating the public sector With contributors ranging from cutting edge scholars to activists working in health water and energy provision and with case studies covering a broad spectrum of localities and actors Making Public in a Privatized World uncovers the radically different ways in which public services are being reshaped from the grassroots up From communities holding the state accountable for public health in rural Guatemala to waste pickers in India and decentralized solar electricity initiatives in Africa the essays in this collection offer probing insights into the complex ways in which people are building genuine alternatives to privatization while also illustrating the challenges which communities face in creating public services which are not subordinated to the logic of the market or to the monolithic state entities of the past

Understanding Corruption Mason C. Hoadley, Neelambar Hatti, 2020-11-15 This volume together scholars specializing in different parts of the world to give us a comparative understanding of the persistence of corruption in some societies The reader is privileged to learn from the many global variations that are skilfully presented for further analyses Corruption is a salient feature of human condition in any organized society Further where risks are low and the returns high corruption is almost inevitable Apart from this traditional public behaviour comes precariously close to what in the West might amount to corrupt practices Bureaucratic corruption should be understood in the light of a clash of morality on the one hand and legality on the other There is a contradiction between traditional values which are held in respect and are a part of everyday life of a people and norms of the larger society which stand out as compelling forces The idea of the modern division between the public and private office is alien to a traditional culture and corruption finds space when this division is not strictly observed Seven essays in this volume cover a range of countries which include India South Africa Nigeria Zimbabwe and Indonesia As the essays unfold themselves the problem of corruption takes on an added dimension that of a legacy left behind by colonialism Please note This title is co published with Social Science Press New Delhi Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka Geomatica ,1999
