Money, Markets and Trade in Late Medieval Europe Lawrin Armstrong, Martin M. Elbl, Ivana Elbl, Lawrin David Armstrong, 2007 The volume explores late medieval market mechanisms and associated institutional fiscal and monetary organizational decision making legal and ethical issues as well as selected aspects of production consumption and market integration The essays span a variety of local regional and long distance markets and networks Conflict in Medieval Europe Warren C. Brown, Piotr Górecki, 2017-05-15 Conflict is defined here broadly and inclusively as an element of social life and social relations Its study encompasses the law not just disputes concerning property but wider issues of criminality coercion and violence status sex sexuality and gender as well as the phases and manifestations of conflict and the behaviors brought to bear on it It engages too with the nature of the transformation spanning the Carolingian period and its implications for the meanings of power violence and peace Conflict in Medieval Europe represents the American school of the study of medieval conflict and social order Framed by two substantial historiographical and conceptual surveys of the field it brings together two generations of scholars the pioneers who continue to expand the research agenda and younger colleagues who represent the best emerging work on this subject The book therefore both marks the trajectory of conflict studies in the United States and presents a set of original highly individual contributions across a shifting conceptual range indicative of a major transition in the field Educational Review Nicholas Murray Butler, Frank Pierrepont Graves, William McAndrew, 1917 Vols 19 34 include Bibliography of education for 1899 1906 compiled by James I Wyer and others
