

My Dream House Essay

Essay on My Dream House

The dream house can keep them in the condition they wanted. In my mind, I hope that my dream house is far from main city and industrial area due to I like quiet environment. I also like fresh air around me. Every day I can woke up by the sound of birds and see them perched in the branches if the trees.

Inside the house will be a big, spacious hall. I will decorate the walls of the hall with paintings like green color and more. I always feeling relax and serene in the house. The day light is essential. In my living room must have some big windows so I will not feel too hot when I am sleeping. A study room is exist certainly. It can be small, in there, I write read books and doing my homework. I hope this room is quiet so I can calm and attentive to do the things. And in my bedroom is painted with my favorite color, light green, it represents feelings if harmony and peace feature for me. I will place in a bookshelf in the room. The bookshelf is occupied by all my favorite books.

Your Dream House Essay

The house outer design will be a calm and open environment. There must have a large open space and planted many trees and flowers. I think the outer decoration looks ordinary enough and have some small and beautiful gardens. If can, I hope it will have a clear river near my house, I also want to rear some pets like rabbit, dog, owl, birds and squirrels. I will provide foods and shelters for them because my gardens have enough space. It should be a green house beside my house. I would grow own vegetables, tomatoes, chilies, eggplants and more. The design and the location of our house usually will affect our mood.

In a nutshell, a dream house would reflect our feelings, thoughts and personality. If we live in a place close to the serenity of nature, our minds, bodies and spirits will be filled with positive energies.
