Understanding Marital Violence Kausiki Sarma, 2024-07-29 This book examines the roles and interconnections between structural factors and individual agency in marital violence focusing on women in heterosexual marital relationships With the overall aim of improving recognition and strengthening responses to marital violence it underlines what occurs as marital violence and why it is possibly occurring in the manner it does while simultaneously demonstrating how it is dealt with and resisted Based upon in depth qualitative data focussing upon the experiences of women facing marital violence and key informants from Assam in Northeast India this book sheds light upon four key areas To begin with what is named or recognised and not recognised as marital violence is assessed and a typology and associated denials informed by the capabilities approach is developed Further the re victimisation that happens through and within both civil and criminal justice is explored In addition to this the existing structural context highlighting changes that occur at a broader economic political and social level contextualising a society that is in transition has been emphasised To conclude conditioned by distinct material cultural constraints enablers and acknowledging the role played by emotions a temporal agential trajectory in response to marital violence is mapped specifically through the concepts of Habitus and Reflexivity In short this book attempts to decolonise certain aspects of academic knowledge around marital violence by asserting the need to consider distinct natures and forms of violence and violations that occur within marriages and the acknowledgement of a spectrum of actions in the agential trajectory so that victims survivors are not solely assessed by their decisions to stay or to leave an abusive marriage It will be of interest to scholars students professionals and policymakers working within social work social policy gender studies and violence prevention

My Half of the Sky Indrani Raimedhi, 2015-01-12 The 12 women who feature in this book come from diverse backgrounds The thread that binds their stories is their resolve to change the circumstances of their lives overcoming tremendous odds and giving wings to their dreams They are survivors and pathfinders doers and dreamers leaving in their wake surging inspiration and hope Their testimonies reveal what it is to live in this often forgotten corner of India They have overcome personal tragedy broken the fetters of tradition discrimination and coped bravely with the harrowing experience of violence and uncertainty

Social Welfare, 2015-04 Indian National Bibliography, 2016-04 The Greatest Love Story Never Told Richard Orion, 2015-10-30 This story is based on a true love story that spanned almost two decades The names and places have been changed to protect the privacy of the individuals involved in this affair The chronological sequence of events has been maintained for continuity All the stories and experiences are based on facts This book is about a love story that was kept secret for 18 years and perhaps shouldve remained a secret The first book related to this love story was a book of poems entitled Somewhere Sometime Somehow Love Poems and Short Stories published in 2008 by this author and Xlibris For the perceptive reader of this book one can trace the ups and downs of our love relationship These 18 years were filled with robust love and passion for each other Perhaps it was fantasy perhaps it was the most real thing we will ever experience The heartbreaking part of this love affair is that I am not really sure my lover ever really understood or appreciated my profound and unconditional love for her I opened my heart to her through poetry and thoughtful letters but she rarely showed me what was in her heart Perhaps it was a one sided love affair but I surely think and hope not I was convinced that she truly loved me through her words and actions At least I experienced a pure love that I had only dreamed was possible The story is told mainly through the exchange of letters and emails to each other Perhaps readers can experience and hopefully feel the deep love we felt for each other Women Hold Up Half the Sky Denise Ackermann,Jonathan A.
